CHEDDAR

The union meeting which met at Cedar Grove on last Saturday and Sunday was well attended. The sermons on both days by Iteva, Haylock and Wright were especially good.

One of the questions discussed was whether or not the union meeting in this district should be done away with. For some time these meetings have been poorly attended and it was thought best by some to discontinue them altogether, but owing to the success of the last one it was unanimously voted that the churches go forward with renewed energy and enthusiasm and hold the union together. The next one will meet at Big Creek near Williamston and it is hoped that every church will be well represented.

Miss Mamie and Helen Price and Miss Abrams of Greenville were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Copeland last week-end.

Miss Annie Earle of Towaville spent a few days this week with her grandmother, Mrs. Alex Sullivan. Miss Lizzie Dickson of South Georgia is visiting relatives in Cheddar and Pelzer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hoyt Ford who have been spending the last week with the former's parents returned to their home in Georgia Monday.

Mr. Guy Rowland of Anderson was a visitor to Cheddar Sunday.

Messrs. Smythe and Barnore Campbell and Leon Burgess of Whitefield attended the union meeting at Cedar Grove Sunday.

Several of our young people attended the Old Fiddlers' convention in Williamston Saturday night.

The Sport—I ain't goin' to say my prayers tonight, mother. I'm goin' to take a chance.—Life.

PENDLETON

The entertainment given by the Eight Weeks club, and managed by Miss Annie Lee Boggs was a great success. The young people who took part in the play, and the pantomime did excellently well. Mrs. Edwin Leslie gave an interesting and spirited recitation, and Miss Lulu Evans played most charmingly on the piano. She bids fair to become a brilliant musician.

The River Heights theatrical club presented the very amusing play, "Topsy Turvy" to a crowded house Tuesday evening last. The manager, Miss Lillian Shirley deserves great credit in a cleverly preserving the parts. Each one took the character they represented to perfection. It was well acted throughout the entire play and made it the success it was.

Individually and collectively they did splendidly and it was a great pleasure to have seen these talented and clever young folks in such a bright and entertaining play. The singing of the Ballentine brothers was particularly enjoyed. They have remarkably sweet voices, and really sang delightfully. They were recalled again, and again.

Next week the schools all open, and the young people, who have such a happy summer, will scatter over the state in the different colleges, and books and class hours will be the order of the day, instead of picnics, dances and moonlight rides.

Useless Knowledge.
"Some of the grandest discoveries of the ages," said the great scientist, sonorously, according to The Christian Register "have been the result of accidents."
"I can readily believe that," said the fair lady. "I once made one that way myself."
The great man blinked his amazement.
"May I ask what it was?"
"Certainly," replied the fair one. "I found that by keeping a bottle of ink handy you can use a fountain pen just like any other pen—without all the trouble of filling it."

The Difference.
The manager of a great shop was showing an admiring friend around.
"How can your assistants tell when a woman is really a purchaser or only shopping?" asked the latter.
"That's simple," replied the manager. "If they ask for something cheaper they want to buy; when they're shopping they usually say: 'Haven't you this in a better quality?'"—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

JOFFRE'S BIRTHPLACE DISPLEASED WITH HIM

Rivesaltes, France, Aug. 30.—(Associated Press Correspondence.)—This town, that gave birth to the commander-in-chief of the French armies, is pouting. The blinds of Joffre's house have been closed more than a year and the patient woodpecker has had time to pierce them in so many places they look as if a machine gun had been operating there. The villagers no longer point the place out to visitors. All because Joffre has not taken the time to go home to receive the address of felicitations of his neighbors and the present thought for him by popular subscription. The general-in-chief is for the moment black-listed and will have to exercise some of his finest strategy after the war to lift the penalty of his neglect.

The ill humor of Rivesaltes is aggravated by a total lack of "sons" and a big deficit of wine. The absence of small change is attributed to the German raid on all forms of copper, and this, too, falls on Joffre, who ought to have been able to prevent it. For the shortage of the vintage of 1915 there is the more logical reason of mildew.

There is less song and laughter in all the towns of the South for the Midi has found something in the war that it is bound to take seriously. All foreign salutes gravely when the Belgian band, recruited from the refugees of Flanders, marches by playing the Brabanconne, but the boisterous cheers of other days are absent. Every day the Place de la Loge is crowded in front of the bulletin board of the Sporting Club, where is posted the latest news from the champion football players of France with friends anxious to see what name has been added to the already long list of those who have fallen on the field of battle.

Toulouse is quite as grave as Perpignan, though more busy making powder, cartridges and bombs.

Toulouse is interesting, also for the mystery that surrounds one of the old brick mansions where Bachelor card coats of arms in 1335. With fixed bayonets, flight and day, the Territorials defend the entrance to this house. The rumor was current in the early fall last year that the Bank of France had transferred its gold reserves there. When the bank returned to Paris, however, the Territorials continued their guard. Their mission is still a mystery to the public in general, but the inflated assert confidentially that Leonard de Vinci's "Mona Lisa," removed from the Louvre when danger threatened Paris, is in safe-keeping there in an inviolable steel case.

Messrs. Frank Burris, Fred Campbell, and H. B. Simpson have returned from Asheville where they have spent the past few days.

Mr. I. Eisenstein is spending a few days in Augusta, Ga.

Magistrate C. P. Kay and Mr. Clyde Green of Belton were business visitors in the city yesterday.

Dr. Carl Hall, who has been assisting in the veterinary division at Clemson college during the summer months, has returned to Anderson.

Mr. L. H. Hall of Iva was a business visitor in Anderson yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Clinkscapes of Clemson college were in the city yesterday.

Mr. Julian Maxwell of Walhalla was a business visitor yesterday.

Miss Mabel Wolfe of Asheville, N. C., is the guest of Mrs. Clarence Osborne.

Miss Besaie Carlisle leaves today for Greenville where she will spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Search Before Mending.
A Chicago woman has been noted since girlhood for her ready wit.

The other day a young amateur humorist exclaimed in her presence: "What could be more dreadful for a woman than, after mending her husband's coat, to find in one of the pockets a love letter from another woman?"

"Fortunately," was the answer "that could never happen. The woman would find the letter first, and then she would not mend the coat."—Chicago Herald.

The Junior Pailthea class of the First Presbyterian church will have a cake sale today at the Owl Drug store. They will have a complete assortment of cakes and all orders will receive prompt attention.

Ladies Plan For Winter Gayeties.
An interesting and enthusiastic meeting was held by the ladies yesterday afternoon at the Elks' Home and various plans were made for many delightful social events for the coming winter.

Mrs. Phelps Sasseen was elected as president in the place of Mrs. Bond Anderson, who moved to Atlanta a short time ago. Mrs. Clarence Tolly is secretary.

At the meeting it was decided to resume the Friday afternoon at homes for the ladies and in addition to the usual card feature the ladies will endeavor to get the other ladies who do not play cards to attend and one particular will be devoted to the entertainment of these and charming little informal gatherings of ladies with their knitting and sewing will be an attractive feature for Friday afternoon.

The ladies also decided to give one dance each month and the chair appointed Mrs. Charles Causey, Mrs. J. H. Godfrey and Mrs. K. P. Smith to act as hostesses for the first one. Mrs. R. E. Ligon was appointed to have charge of the serving. They hope to have their first dance right away before the college girls go away.

The Elks Home is one of the beautiful homes in the city and the ladies are delighted to have such lovely parlors placed at their disposal for each Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Vandiver spent last night with relatives in Williamston.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Broyles, who were married in Ninety Six two weeks ago, are here the guests of Mr. Broyles' parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. N. Broyles. After a two weeks visit, they will go to Columbia where Mr. Broyles teaches history in the city schools.

Mrs. R. E. Cochran and her guest Miss Annetta Walker, went to Chicka Springs last night to attend the last ball of the season.

Mrs. T. B. Curtis will return to her home in Atlanta today after a visit to Mrs. Frank Sloan.

Mrs. T. A. Ratcliffe leaves today for her home in Atlanta after a visit of several weeks to relatives here.

Mrs. M. Eels of Chicago, who has been spending the summer in Hendersonville, is here to spend a month with Mrs. Ed Atkinson at Mrs. Carrie McCully's.

Mrs. Calhoun Marshall and Misses Frances and Virginia Marshall are spending several days in Atlanta.

Miss Esther Lander of Pelzer is the guest for several days of Mrs. Frank Sloan. Miss Lander is on her way to Clemson where she will teach during the coming winter.

Mrs. Charlie Poore and Misses Mary and Frances Poore have returned to their home at Louisville, Ky., after a month's visit to Mrs. Poore's mother, Mrs. M. J. Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Bailes are expected home from New York today.

Smile In Court.
At a recent trial one of the witnesses was a green country man, unused to the way of the law; but quick as it proved, to understand its principles, says the Chicago Herald. After a severe cross-examination the counsel for the prosecution paused, and then, putting on a look of severity, exclaimed:

"Mr. Kilikus has not an effort been made to induce you to tell a different story?"

"A different story from what I told, sir?"

"That is what I mean."

"Yes, sir; several persons have tried to get me to tell a different story from what I have told, but they couldn't."

"Now, sir, upon your oath, I wish to know who those persons are?"

"Well, I guess you've tried 'bout as hard as any of them."

Accurately Timed.
"This is certainly a modern cook book in every way."

"How so?"

"It says: 'After mixing your bread, you can watch two reels at the movies before putting it in the oven.'—Puck.

CALOMEL IS MERCURY! IT SICKENS! ACTS ON LIVER LIKE DYNAMITE

"Dodson's Liver Tone" Starts Your Liver Better Than Calomel and Doesn't Salivate or Make You Sick.

Listen to me! Take no more sickening, salivating calomel when bilious or constipated. Don't lose a day's work! Calomel is mercury or quicksilver which causes necrosis of the bones. Calomel, when it comes into contact with your bile crashes into it, breaking it up. This is when you feel that awful nausea and cramping. If you are sluggish and "all knocked out," if your liver is torpid and bowels constipated or you have headache, dizziness, coated tongue, if breath is bad or stomach sour just take a spoonful of harmless Dodson's Liver Tone on my guarantee.

I guarantee that one spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tone will put your sluggish liver to work and clean your bowels of that sour bile and constipated waste which is clogging your system and making you feel miserable. I guarantee that a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will keep your entire family feeling fine for months. Give it to your children. It is harmless; doesn't gripe and they like its pleasant taste.

Here's my guarantee—Go to any drug store and get a 50 cent bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone. Take a spoonful tonight and if it doesn't strengthen you right up and make you feel fine and vigorous by morning I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Dodson's Liver Tone is destroying the sale of calomel because it is real liver medicine; entirely vegetable, therefore it can not salivate or make you sick.

FALL OPENING

Columbia Tailoring Company Ready to Sell the Suits.

The Columbia Tailoring company on West Whitner street opened the fall campaign for tailoring business yesterday with a full page ad in which they offer exceptional values in tailored to measure clothes at fourteen and a half dollars per suit, with a five dollar hat, made of the very same cloth as the suit is made of.

This is a very novel idea, and is bound to appeal to the "best dressers" of Anderson and vicinity. Mr. Foster, who has recently taken charge of the Columbia Tailoring company's place in Anderson is very enthusiastic about the many fine patterns which he has on hand from which the public may choose their fall suits and overcoats.

They also have made a very, very pretty window display of some of their fall patterns in their show windows, which is attracting quite a bit of attention.

Abel Incident Explained.
When their first son was born, Adam is thought by some critics to have remarked not without much acerbity: "Red hair! Wouldn't that jar you?"

"Well, I am not presenting you with any gold-headed canes, if I know myself," retorted Eve, affecting indifference, albeit secretly mortified to death.—Puck.
